

With great pride, we invite you to:

The Historical Artfair with the Amsterdam Streets as Pathways

The Spiegelkwartier invited Art dealers and galleries from all over the Netherlands to exhibit temporarily in empty, curious and special places in and around the Antiques District.

Don't be surprised to find a Sluijters in a parking-lot, or Chinese porcelain in a privately owned souterrain.

And you can safely enjoy a coffee and lunch as well at one of the street vendors.

The event is Corona-proof due to the separate spaces in which only a few people are allowed.

Also, we have an army of cleaners that will keep the fair safe for you to visit and RIVM rules are strictly abided.

The mass tourism already evaporated, so book yourself a few days Amsterdam and indulge yourself in the splendour the city and the new acquisitions the Dutch Art World have to offer you.

A lot can change in a short period of time, so subscribe to the AAW-newsletter. Find more info on health-regulations, participants and locations on:
