

SCDI and Mainline are proud to present

THE STIMULANT HARM REDUCTION FIELD LAB in Hanoi, Vietnam.

The field lab seeks to share practical experiences on how to address harms associated with the use of meth-amphetamine across the Asian region

Join our two interactive webinars for outreach workers, field staff who work with people who use methamphetamine.

Webinar 1: Wednesday 23 June 2021

Outreach for people who use methamphetamine

Time: 2PM – 4PM (Hanoi Time, UTC+7)

Languages: English and Vietnamese. Other languages (e.g. Bahasa Indonesia, Burmese, Filipino/Tagalog, Thai) available upon request

Register: <https://echo.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJEocOqrrzktGNAZ5lGeN6ljQAp3gHAalrBT>

Programme

- A background of how we developed our outreach for people who use methamphetamine in Vietnam
- Define the goals of our outreach
- Present our wide-ranging outreach process – the circle of reach
- Discussion on how best to build trusting relationships with clients
- Offering specific harm reduction interventions

Webinar 2: Wednesday 30 June 2021

Community-based mental health interventions

Time: 2PM – 4PM (Hanoi Time, UTC+7)

Languages: English and Vietnamese. Other languages (e.g. Bahasa Indonesia, Burmese, Filipino/Tagalog, Thai) available upon request

Register: <https://echo.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJAvduCprjliGNQYx6M4AL6kM7G06DUm3C9D>

Programme

- The South-East Asian perspective on Mental Health
- Mental health vs physical health
- Mental health issues: Changes in thinking, psychosis, depression, anxiety
- Screening for mental health issues among people who use methamphetamine
- Community-based mental health interventions for people who use methamphetamine

These two interactive webinars are part of a series of three: the basic principles of the Stimulant Field Lab are presented during a first session on 22 June 2021. This session is organised to meet programme management, (regional) stakeholders and anyone with an interest in stimulant harm reduction.

The field lab and these webinars are supported by Open Society Foundations.